

LADIES' SILK AND WOOL SUITS

SUCH ENTHUSIASM as has been shown in our Garment Department shows what EXTREMELY LOW PRICES will do. We are determined not to go into the Fall season with a Summer garment on hand.

The prices on the following would in hardly any instance cover the cost of materials, regardless of making. It's an opportunity that won't last long.

BANQUET TO BRYAN.

Addressed 500 Wisconsin Democrats—Will Make European Trip.

Madison, Wis., July 29.—Wisconsin Democrats to the number of 500 last night gave a banquet to W. J. Bryan.

Col. Bryan said that he held it a great honor to address such a gathering. He intended to take an extended European trip and for that reason especially he appreciated the present opportunity to discuss Democratic ideas and principles. It was early to discuss the standard bearer of the party for 1908. He said that he wanted to take a long foreign trip to bring back to the people a more complete knowledge of the world. He thought that it was a good time for him to go now because there were no prospects that the Senate and the president would get together on any important subject for a long time.

14 YEAR OLD ELOPED.

She Has Been Taken Back Home by Her Father.

Salisbury, July 29.—Some weeks since Fred Vincent of this place eloped with Hattie, the pretty fourteen year old daughter of Nelson Marcelle, a well known farmer here, and the whereabouts of the couple was not known until recently, when Dr. Isaac Marcelle, a brother of the girl, living in Glens Falls, located them near Sandy Hill, N. Y. Investigation showed that although living together as husband and wife, they were not married, and Vincent's arrest promptly followed.

At the preliminary examination the girl swore that she was enticed away from home by Vincent, who is a cousin of hers, and a near neighbor, and that she had no thought of living with him when she left home, but supposed she was going to see her sister who lives near Fort Edward. After getting her away he would not let her return and finally persuaded her to live with him under the relations as found by promising to marry her. He was placed under $1,000 bonds and was held in Salem jail for appearance at the October term of court. The minimum penalty for his crime is 10 years in the penitentiary. Vincent is 23 years old and has long borne an unsavory reputation. He is very dissipated, and has figured prominently in many drunken brawls.
